

The Sussex Director of Studies
Association is proud to present:

Midweek English Language Teaching Sessions

The Place of British Culture in the ELT classroom
By
Emily Wright

This session considers what culture is, what kind of culture our students may be in search of, or not, and if the text books reflect aspects of British culture well. The session is intended to be thought-provoking and perhaps make us more aware of why certain content is omitted from English language course books, and what, if needed, can be done about this. It will also attempt to promote awareness of who our students are, and what they would like to learn in the classroom.

Stafford House
61 Western Road
6.30-8pm
Wednesday 26st July

This event is free but has limited space – places are accepted on a first come first served basis. Register at: jdruy@staffordhouse.com

This event is kindly sponsored by:

